Dear Parents and Carers,

Re: World Book Day

We are very much looking forward to celebrating World Book Day with the children (both in school and at home) on Thursday 4th March. We have lots of fabulous activities planned around some of our favourite books.

We appreciate that this year our celebrations will have to take a slightly different format due to the national lockdown; however, we still want to make it a special event for all the pupils involved.

The children at home and in school are encouraged to either dress as one of their favourite book characters or to wear their Pyjamas – please don't buy a new costume, an old costume, or better still a homemade one will be perfect!

We will also be having a #readingselfie competition. We would like our pupils to send us a selfie of them reading their favourite book. All entries will receive a prize and special prizes will be awarded for the most unusual places to read your book! You can either tweet your photographs on our twitter page – Marshlandprima1, upload the picture onto purple mash, email it to ml-admin@vennacademy.org or if you're in Foundation 1 and 2 you can upload it to your child's Tapestry account.

Thank you in advance for your continued support.
